You'll Be There To Meet Them

(When The Boys Come Home)

Words by JEFF BRAXEN

Music by DICK HEINRICH

Just wait un-til this war is o-ver, You'll be hap-py then, To There'll be a world's re-joic-ing when the clouds go drift-ing by, And see the home town boys who marched a-way get back a-gain, You'll all be there and I'll be there, Our ev-'ry eye is raised to see a rain-bow in the sky, When peace on earth has been re-stored, And anx-ious hearts will yearn, 'Twill be a sight to watch the fac-es when the boys re-turn bat-tle lines dis-band, And all the na-tions' fight-ing sons get back to He-ro-land.
CHORUS
For ev-'ry sad one there'll be lots of glad ones, For ev-'ry tear there'll — be a lot of cheers. For ev-'ry heart - sob — there'll be lots of heart - throbs —

— That will be re - mem - bered — in fu-ture years. For ev-'ry bow'd head —
— there'll be lots of proud heads, — There'll be ban-ners stream - ing — from hill and dome, —
— That tells the sto - ry — in a blaze of glo - ry. — You'll be there to meet them, — When the boys come home. For ev-'ry home —
